

What Kind of Neighbor Am I

Introduction

This is not just to take the love of God across the seas, but across the street.

Our struggle with the story is not familiarity but living it out.

- I. The Story: Luke 10:25-37
- II. This story says some important things to the Church:
  - a. We should lead a 3D life.
    - i. Decide to engage.
      1. This is done ahead of time.
      2. Pray – “God put people in my path so I can minister to them.”
    - ii. Discover their story.
      1. Hearing their story may change your perspective.
      2. Learning somebody’s story is a powerful experience.
    - iii. Discern the next steps.
      1. He didn’t just bandage the wounds and send him off.
      2. What do they need the most next?
  - b. We must respond to interruptions like Jesus did.
    - i. Jesus did most of his ministry in the midst of interruptions.
      1. Luke 5 – Man on the mat lowered through the roof.
      2. Luke 8 – Healing of the woman with an issue of blood.
      3. Jesus dealt with interruptions graciously.
    - ii. The Samaritan was interrupted.
    - iii. Interruptions can be an opportunity for ministry.
  - c. We must realize the neediest neighbor around us may not look anything like us.

Conclusion

The mission of Christianity is to take the love of God across the street, not just the seas.

Compassion – a feeling accompanied by action.

The question isn’t who is my neighbor? But, what kind of neighbor am I?

Please join us each week for a Zoom bible study!

We are excited about two bible studies that are being offered each week at CCR! Both of these studies are taking place via the Zoom app, which is available to download to your computer or mobile device.

- David West is offering a class each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. He is doing a study of 1 Thessalonians.
- Emily Cometti is offering a class each Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. Emily's class will be doing a study entitled, What Women Saw: Discovering Jesus Through the Eyes of Women. Every week we will view a short video together followed by a few discussion questions. Study guides are available for $10 each. If you are interested in purchasing a study guide, please let the office know.

Please watch for the Zoom meeting links to come out on the prayer chain emails each week! If you have questions, please don't heistate to call the church office. David & Emily are also happy to answer any questions that you might have!

Thank You Note Received

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,
 Thank you for your continued love & prayers on my behalf following my emergency surgery and subsequent sepsis infection. I am feeling better and stronger each day. God has been very gracious & kind to me. I appreciated the many cards & thoughts. I am thankful for God's healing hand and His grace.

In Him,
 Kevin Austin

Gems of Truth...

- It is better to forgive & forget than to resent and remember.
- The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it.
- God does not love you because you are important; you are important because God loves you.
- If you growl all day, you will be dog tired at night.
- Prayer does not need proof, it needs practice.
- Many people want what they don't need, and need what they don't want.
