

What's My Responsibility to My Fellow Christian?

James 5:19-20

Introduction

Are we our brother's keepers?

- I. What is our responsibility to other churches?
- II. What we need to do:
 - a. We watch out for each other.
 - i. We are a "one another" community.
 - ii. Phil. 2:4.
 - iii. 1 Thess. 5:14.
 - iv. Our fellowship with each other is meaningless if we don't care about their relationship with Christ.
 - b. We keep a soft heart toward wandering saints.
 - i. Usually we talk about them.
 - ii. A true brother says, "I love you in spite of, let's work on it together."
 - iii. We live in a redemptive society.
 - iv. Luke 22:31-32.
 - v. We have all failed and had to repent.
 - vi. 2 Thess. 3:15.
 - c. We are ready to help and forgive.
 - i. Our task is to be completely available to do whatever is necessary to bring our brother back to Jesus.
 - ii. James does not say how to do this.
 - iii. Gal. 6:1-2.
 - iv. What else can you do?
- III. The bottom line is, since God will never give up on one of his children, I can never give up on one of my fellow Christians.

Conclusion

James says, "Is your religion real?"

Nothing should keep faith from working in love.

In addition, they would like to encourage mask wearing when interacting with one another. If we remain vigilant, maybe we can beat this thing!

Life Group Study Guide

Text: James 5:19-20

1. Should there be accountability in the church? What action do we take towards accountability? How do we begin? Are we our brother’s keeper?
2. Jesus says in John 13:35, “By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” What does it really mean to love? Can we love one another without being active in one another’s lives? How active do we want people in our lives?
3. How am I responsible for someone else’s soul? Do we want this responsibility? Do we take this responsibility seriously?
4. How far are we willing to go when we see a brother in sin? Are we willing to journey with him through the sin into recovery? How do we accomplish this?
5. Why is it so hard to confess our sins to each other? What’s the significance of doing it to each other? Shouldn’t we just be doing it with God?
6. Reflect on Galatians 6:1-2. What does it mean to restore gently? To carry each other’s burdens?
