

The Doctor Will See You Now: Following Jesus

Luke 9:57-62

Jesus will use farmer/field language to describe

We are being called to the field – A call to work!

It's not always easy being a disciple – John 6

Following Jesus is an all or nothing following – It has costs!

1. Following means: _____ - Luke 9:57-58

- Sometimes our “wherever” is good as long as Jesus’ “wherever” is the “wherever” we want to be.
- Saying _____ means saying _____ to me.
- It's not _____

2. Following means: _____ - Luke 9:59-60

- When you say, “_____” after Jesus speaks you are not _____ about following.
- _____ is not what Jesus is calling us to do.

3. Following means: _____ - Luke 9:61-62

- Total _____
- How we look at _____ changes the whole body of believers

So what do we do? We grab the _____!

Life Group Questions

1. In your mind, what does it mean to follow Jesus? How is that the same or different from following someone/something in this world?
2. What is the struggle we have with “wherever” when it comes to following Jesus?
3. How do we give up our own will for what Jesus wants in our lives?
4. Go through all three responses to following Jesus in Luke 9:57-62. How did Jesus respond to each one?
5. Fill in the blank. To be a disciple you must _____!
