

2020 All In: Resources

Luke 16:10-13

- I. What does it mean to be a steward?
- II. Three Resources:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____

God has trusted us.
God has trusted CCR.

Small Group Bible Study – January 26, 2020

1. Why would it be important for Jesus’ disciples to hear this story? Why is it important for us to hear it?
2. What’s the problem with trying to serve two masters? Which masters pull at our allegiance? Why do some of them have more pull than others? Is money always another master?
3. How do you view your money: It’s mine, keep your hands off; it’s God’s, I just manage it? How should our view be?
4. In the Old Testament, Israel was to give the firstfruits. What do you think that means?
5. Read Eph. 2:10 and 1 Corinthians 12:4-6. How are we stewards of our talents? Why is it so important for the members of the body of Christ to figure out and use their talents?
6. How are we stewards of our time?
7. We have been taught how to live every aspect of life. Do we do it? How can the church do it better?
