

How Do I Be Content?

“The fear of the LORD leads to life; then one rests content, untouched by trouble.”

Proverbs 19:23

Introduction:

- What things are most important to you?
- How much is too much?
- Words from a wise man – Ecclesiastes 1:2-11
- Temptation of wanting more in the beginning.
- Trying to be content in the early days of the church.

1. What was Paul’s secret in looking at life?

- He was content when had _____ and when he had _____ - Philippians 4:10-13
- He was ok with no longer living here on earth – Philippians 1:21-25

2. The Problem

- Our _____ - Luke 12:13-21

3. The Solution

- Set our minds on _____ - Colossians 3:2
- Fix our eyes on _____ - Hebrews 12:1-3
- Long for a _____ - Hebrews 11:13-16
- Seek God’s _____ and His _____ - Matthew 6: 33

Conclusion:

In a world where enough cannot be found, we find our enough at the foot of the cross.

Life Group Study Questions

1. What is the most difficult part of being content? Name a time when you were not and a time when you were content.
2. How and when do you decide what “enough” is?
3. Why do you suppose Adam and Eve needed more than they had already been given (before eating from the tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil)?
4. Honestly, can we say like Paul that we would rather leave this earth to be with Jesus? Why is it difficult to face death?
5. What is Paul trying to convey to the church in Colossi when he told them to set their eyes on things above?
6. How do we look for a better place beyond this world when we can’t see it?
