Introduction

At some point, we are all going to crash.

At some point, someone you care about is going to crash.

Jesus gives us a model for putting things back together again.

- I. John’s end to his book on daring faith.
 - a. John 20:30-31.
 - b. But wait! He has one more story to tell.
 - c. Read John 21:15-19.
 - d. Nobody experiences life as an unbroken string of spiritual successes.
 - e. Use of the words for love through this passage.
- II. _____, _____ and _____.
 - a. Jesus starts with the most important question when you’ve had spiritual failure, “_____?”
 - i. Despite enormous failure, Peter loves Jesus.
 - ii. Why is Peter fishing again? Does he think his apostleship has been revoked?
 - b. Is Peter more _____ I to the church because he failed?
 - i. Peter has scars, so do the rest of us.
 - ii. “Feed my sheep, care for my lambs.”
 - iii. Jesus – things have changed, and you are heading in a different direction.
 - c. _____ evolve over the years.
 - i. The small child thinks parents are perfect.
 - ii. Eventually they realize they are not perfect or ignorant – relationship is built on mutual failure, forgiveness, and love.
 - iii. Faith matures that way too. Peter is in the midst of evolving in his relationship with Jesus.

Conclusion

Jesus does 3 things for Peter:

1. He goes back to the _____.
2. He tells him to _____ his vision from himself and to look for other people.
3. He _____ him on what lies ahead.

We cannot think about yesterday!

Not one of us knows what is ahead, but we are confident in our God's love and care for our future and what Jesus has done for each of us. "Oh, what a Savior!" Thank you again for your encouragement. Sincerely,
