Only One? Luke 17:11-19

Introduction

A community in exile.

No place, no home, now a band of lepered men. This band of brothers even includes a Samaritan.

- I. Sometimes we fail to give thanks because we become distracted.
 - a. Why only one?
 - b. They didn’t give thanks to Jesus because they were too busy looking forward to their new life.
 - c. Who was it that went back to give thanks to Jesus?
 - i. He received a gift that he did not expect and, in his mind, did not deserve.
 - ii. By the end of the story his view of Jesus may have changed from healer to redeemer.
 - iii. Did the others think they deserved it?
 - d. Which do we do more: give thanks or gripe?
- II. So how should we act?
 - a. No matter what the blessing or how small it may seem we should respond like King David.
 - i. 2 Sam. 7:18-21.
 - ii. Who am I to deserve this?
 - b. How is this done?
 - i. We _____ Him.
 - 1. Luke 17:16.
 - 2. Do we remember his power and his greatness?
 - 3. Ps. 100.
 - ii. We _____ to Him.
 - 1. The leper falling on his knees was also a sign of submission.
 - 2. Those who are truly grateful hear the call of Jesus when he says rise and go.

Conclusion
Be the one!
Luke 17:19.

From the Mailbag...

Dear Church Family,
It was so touching to see so many of our Church family at Lance’s Memorial Service in Capitan on Monday. For you to make the trip up there meant a lot to us. We also want to thank you for the calls, cards and embraces. Words can’t express our heartbreak but please know that your kindness has helped ease the pain.

Sincerely,
Ronnie & Beverly Merritt & Sue Creighton

Dear Ladies Bible Class,
I miss everyone of you so much. But circumstances in life change and we have to adjust accordingly. Thank you so much for the card. I read every name and recalled every face. Encouraged me with such fellowship. I am glad you are still having class. Lindsay blessed me with the book. It is a good read. God bless you in the days ahead is my prayer.

1. What are you the most thankful for? Who do you need to thank? What hinders us from saying thank you?
2. How often do we take credit for what God has done? Why do we do this?
3. Reflect on the story of the 10 lepers in Luke 17:11-18. Why did only one return to give thanks?
4. What was it like to be a leper in that day? What would healing mean for the ten lepers?
5. As one of the nine, how would you rationalize not going back to Jesus to say thank you?
6. How is adoration a reflection of our thanksgiving?
