A Shock Yet to Come

James 5:1-6

Introduction

If you lead a self-indulgent life, you are in for a future shock. Why?

Because –

- I. Wealth lies every time it tries to be a worthy object of trust.
 - a. Wealth tempts people to put off the future.
 - i. Wealth promises security, but it demands allegiance that should only go to God.
 - ii. Materialism is: Not a person who has affluence, it is an attitude both rich and poor alike can have.
 - b. James is not condemning being rich.
 - i. What he is condemning is the arrogant, self-indulgent lifestyle.
 - ii. The Bible is full of negative examples:
- II. The ungodly rich are in for some future shocks:
 - a. Shock #1 – _____ will testify against you.
 - i. In James day, you amassed wealth in three ways: clothes, food, precious metals.
 - ii. There are some serious problems with the strategy of hoarding:
 - b. Shock #2 – _____ cannot be _____.
 - i. With affluence comes influence, often at the price of justice.
 - 1. Jam. 2:6.
 - 2. Jam. 5:6.
 - ii. The prophets railed against this. Amos 5:12.
 - c. Shock #3 – _____ face God’s _____.
 - i. The rich often live like these are not the last days, but they are.
 - ii. James 4:5 – “You have fattened yourselves.”
- III. What do we do with this disturbing text?
 - a. _____ Christian ethics.
 - i. Don’t cheat anybody.
 - ii. Fairness and honesty are things we cannot compromise.
 - b. Be _____.
 - i. If we would learn to be content, we wouldn’t have such a temptation to hoard.
 - ii. 1 Tim. 6:6-8.
 - iii. Heb. 13:5.
 - c. _____ about the end.
 - i. Rich and poor alike share the same destiny.
 - ii. 1 Tim. 6:17-19.

Servants Among Us

Our gratitude is extended to Kent Taylor, Bryce Taylor & Brian Houghtalin for their ongoing work to complete the flooring for our gym foyer renovation. Thanks also to Alan & Pam Warboys who are painting the walls and prepping the wood trim that will be installed soon. Exciting changes are soon to come!

Thank you also to Tom Moody and his son, Clay for their continued work in completing the fence around the garden on the West side of the building. This soon to be completed project has been in the works for about a month and the majority of the material has been donated by numerous individuals. Thanks so much for sharing your time & talents in making our grounds more secure.

Small Group Study Guide

Text: James 5:1-6

1. In what ways does wealth lie to us? Does it lie too only the rich? Why or why not?
2. What are some Biblical examples of a self-indulgent lifestyle gone awry?
3. What kind of things do we hoard?
4. Will the rich face God’s wrath? Why or why not?
5. How would you define Christian ethics? Ethics have taken a beating in the world, have they taken a beating in the church?
6. How can we learn to be content with what we have?
