

Prayer Requests

- Davis is recovering from his second round of chemotherapy. He is slated to begin his third round in three weeks.
- Alicia is preparing for surgery on October 18th. She had numerous tests this week in preparation for her upcoming procedure.
- Alan & Pam Warboys are traveling to Dallas this week. Their brother-in-law, Frank recently passed, and they will be attending his funeral. Alan will be seeing his doctors and having a check-up while they are there.

From the Mailbag

Church Family,
A heartfelt gratitude for the calls, cards and concerns which you blessed me with during my most recent surgeries. Each and every one lifted my spirit along with the prayers on my behalf. I am so hoping this will be the end of a year filled with so many ups and downs. I am ready to be on the uptake now!

Blessings to all,
Sharon Carbone

Dear Church Family,
I want to thank you for the great care package I received in the mail this week. It had some of my favorite things! Thank you for thinking of me while I’m away at school.

~Logan Harrell

Dear CCR Family,
Thank you for my care package! It was so much fun opening it and seeing all of the great things inside. I appreciate those who took the time to put it together.

Sincerely,
Aleyannah Santos

- Michael Joiner will be preaching for us this Sunday in Doug’s absence. Michael has been in ministry for 40 years! He retired from Hermosa Church of Christ several years ago and now resides in Lubbock. Be sure to give him a hearty welcome on Sunday.
- Thank you to the Rogers & Cometti crew for our dynamite Recharge meal this week! Thanks also to our hardworking clean-up crew. The menu for next week will be red & green enchiladas.
- As Alicia prepares for her upcoming surgery and extended recovery thereafter we will be putting out a meal schedule to help provide them with food for several weeks. In addition we would like to start gathering frozen foods & casseroles to make for some easy meals for the Bennett’s. If you would like to prepare a frozen dish, you can drop it by the church building any time! The frozen meals will be delivered all at once at a later date. Please do your best to keep the meals low in carbs and avoid using white flour if possible.
- If you are willing to provide a decorated trunk & pass out candy at our upcoming Trunk or Treat, a sign-up sheet is located on the foyer table. We will need lots of trunks & lots of candy! The Trunk or Treat will take place on Sunday, Oct. 30th from 4-6 p.m.
- We are so pleased to share the exciting news that Logan Ingalls was selected as Mustang of the Month for Mrs. Rodriguez’s 1st grade class! Logan attends Military Heights Elementary School and is a very hardworking and diligent student. Way to go, Logan!!

Study Guide

Text: Psalm 34

1. Why are some Christians continually upset over what is happening in their lives?
2. Why do some Christians, who have similar problems, yet have a sense of peace and wellbeing?
3. Why is “being in the word daily” so important?
4. Focus on Psalm 34:4-7. What jumps out to you from this text? Does this text bring you any peace or give you any hope?
5. How do we convince ourselves that God will deliver?
6. How does the “fear of the Lord” factor into God’s deliverance and our beliefs? Does David seem afraid of God?
