From the Mailbag...

Dear Church Family,
It is with very humbled hearts that we extend our extreme gratitude to each of you that has walked alongside of us during this difficult time. We are so very grateful to this congregation of the Lord’s people for every prayer and for every act of kindness shown to us in order to help make our journey lighter. May God bless each of you as we all continue toward our eternal home!! With all our love, The Bennett Family

Our Vision Casting Team has begun work on what God wants our church to do in the future to help people know Jesus. We are laying the groundwork for fulfilling the first part of our mission statement, for creating a “discipleship strategy.” Please pray for the efforts of our Vision Casting Team and the elders as together we develop a vision for knowing Jesus and making him known!

Small Group Bible Study

Text: Nehemiah 2

1. In the intervening four months, what do you think Nehemiah has been doing? What does the King notice and why? Why has it taken Nehemiah so long to express his grief to the king?
2. What has you troubled regarding the condition of the world? How about the condition of the church, maybe even CCR?
3. Nehemiah will say, “The gracious hand of my God is upon me.” What do you think that phrase means? How would that inspire the people of Jerusalem?
4. What obstacle to Nehemiah’s success looms on the horizon? Why is it an obstacle?
5. Is failure worth the risk? Why or why not?
6. Why is changing our methodology so hard? Is it possible to change our methods without compromising our doctrine?
