Vision 2030 Update:

The Vision Casting Team has sent their Vision 2030 goals to the elders. After our elders pray about, discuss, and finalize a vision for the future, they will bring it before the church and ask for our support. Tentatively, they are planning to introduce their vision for the next 6½ years on Sunday, July 9.

Please continue to go to God in prayer for our shepherds as they cast a vision for the future of our church family!

Thanks so much to those who so generously donated. Demolition has already begun in preparation for the ovens that should be here in about a week and a half.

Study Guide

1. Why do we love “blame shifting?” The world does it all the time, do Christians? Does the church?
2. How do we handle those moments in our life when we have been truly wronged? Do we handle those moments any better than the world does?
3. What do you wish you knew from the Philemon/Onesimus story?
4. One of the lines from Michael’s sermon went something like this, “God is not in the habit of asking you how you feel about doing the right thing.” Why is this point so important?
5. Jonah needed to change his attitude toward those he hated and who had “done Israel wrong.” Is there a chance we need to do the same thing? How? Who? Why?
6. Any other thoughts or observations from Michael’s sermon this morning?
