

FOR ALL THAT YOU'RE GOING TO DO

VISION = 2030 =

We have started the process of designing a plan to

- 1) See 300 children in our children's and student ministries;
- 2) Strengthen the Sunday morning worship assembly to inspire and equip people to follow Jesus, with a goal of regularly engaging 85% of our members; and
- 3) Reach out to young families in our community with a goal of tripling the number of young families in our church.

Please pray that God will direct our leaders as they draw up plans for the future.

That he will give them wisdom, boldness, and a dependence on him!

Study Guide

1. Is there ever a time for corporate confession? Why does Israel make this confession at this time?
2. What is the relationship between the three parts of Israel's worship: instruction from the Word, confession of sin and praise of God? Should the church be practicing this same movement in the midst of renewal?
3. In the prayer recorded in Nehemiah 9, God's grace and power are reviewed throughout redemptive history. Why is this so important for Israel? Why is it important to recall the mighty acts of God? Are the same things important for us?
4. Does rededication always mean we failed completely, or can we do it for other reasons? Any non-Church examples you can think of?
5. What does it mean to rededicate ourselves to the work God calls us to do?
6. How do we go about rededication ourselves? How do we do it as a Church?
