

The Gospel is for All

- I. Can you build islands of godliness in a sea of secularism?
 - a. The answer is yes. But Titus, you need to do a couple of things first:
 - b. There is a tendency for new Christians to go back to the behavior they did before they were Christians.
 - c. Titus 2:1-10.
- II. What happens when we start to live out grace in our lives?
 - a. We realize that the mandate of Jesus is not just to the convert, but to mature.
 - i. We cannot settle for mediocre Christians living.
 - ii. We should constantly be “straightening out” our lives.
 - b. What we preach must help people get well.
 - i. Tit. 2:11-12.
 - ii. I can’t make you drink, but I can make sure the water is there.
 - c. Maturity is promoted by people who role model growth.
 - i. After they have learned, they can teach.
 - ii. Faith is caught as much as it is taught.
 - d. There are no unimportant people in the church.
 - e. Small groups have always played a vital role in making churches healthy.
 - f. Christianity is not credible, if it is not visible.
 - i. Tit. 2:5, (older train younger women).
 - ii. Tit. 2:8, (young men).
 - iii. Tit. 2:10, (slaves).

From the Mailbag

Dear CCR Church,
We wanted to express our thanks for the cards, phone calls, and prayers on behalf of Ray during the past couple of months. Thankfully, his health continues to improve. We are so grateful for the love and support of our church family. Sincerely,
Ray & Dolores Sanchez

Thank You, VBS Volunteers

Thank you for the love you give,
The time you take, the way you live.
For every smile, each gentle word,
You shared God's truth, His love was heard.
You led with joy, you served with grace,
You helped make VBS a special place.
Through games and crafts, and Bible stories,
You filled young hearts with God's great glories.
So here's our thanks, sincere and true—
This week was blessed because of you.
May God return the love you share,
With blessings rich beyond compare.

Life@CCR

- We had a whopping 354 in attendance at our Ice Cream Social on Wednesday night! Thank you so much to those who participated by attending and/or making ice cream for this fun night!
- Gentlemen! We'll be starting up a new Friday Coffee Group taking place in the Small Fellowship each Friday morning at 8:30 a.m. It will be a time of encouragement, camaraderie and prayer. All ages are welcome! Mark your calendars for the first meeting next Friday, June 13th.
- Kid's Church will be back in session this Sunday!
- Our highest day of VBS attendance so far has been on Thursday! We had 173 kiddos here, which is our highest number since pre-Covid!! Taryn and the teachers do such an amazing job, be sure to let them know how much we appreciate all their hard work!
- Church camps will be starting up now that summer is in full swing! There is a full list of camps available on the church website. Just go to ccrccoc.com and look for the "Ministries" tab.
- A shower table will be set up in the church foyer on June 15th & 22nd to honor Jonah Austin and his soon-to-be bride, Paige Schneider. You can find their registry at theknot.com. Best wishes to the happy couple!

Small Group Bible Study

Text: Titus 2:1-10

1. What is Paul implying about the importance of mentors?
2. How can we become role models for those around us?
How can we be a better influence to those around us?
How do we find someone to mentor?
3. What one quality in each of the groups mentioned do you feel is most important for Christians in our society (look at older men, older women, younger men, younger women and employees)?
4. Why is the older generation of our congregation so important? How can we get to know them better? What can we learn from their experience?
5. Explore this statement from the sermon: "Faith is caught as much as it is taught."
6. How have small groups helped in these areas of our congregation: church health, discipleship and evangelism? What can we do better?
7. Who has had their "arm around" you? How has that person changed your life?
